

NEWS, PROPERTY | 14.01.19 | BY KYLIE MCDOWELL

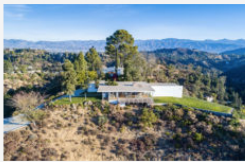

Modernist gem by Jules Wabbes hits the market in Brussels

Modernist gem by Jules Wabbes hits the market in Brussels

James Turrell's ambitious volcano project might finally be nearing completion

Richard Neutra's Chuey House is for sale - and it is ready to relocate

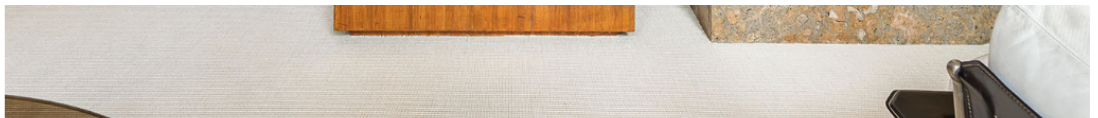

Courtesy Brussels Sotheby's International Realty

4 OF 8 ↗

Designer Jules Wabbes crafted the interiors of this Brussels apartment in 1960 and it's been preserved as a time capsule of midcentury modernism.

The 300 sqm duplex - on the market via Brussels Sotheby's International Realty for €990,000 - sits on the third and fourth floors of the heritage listed structure by architect Jacques Cuisinier in the Schaerbeek neighbourhood of the city.

Courtesy Brussels Sotheby's International Realty

A rosewood panelled hallway leads into the Brussels property's double height reception room, while brass, steel and marble elements can be found across the kitchen, dining room and upper level.

Courtesy Brussels Sotheby's International Realty

The tiled mezzanine library is accessed via a geometric wooden staircase and overlooks the living room below. It leads to two bedrooms - the master of which is a vast 50 sqm space.

Courtesy Brussels Sotheby's International Realty

Courtesy Brussels Sotheby's International Realty

Read next: Brussels warehouse home with private gallery lists for €1.68m

TAGS: BELGIAN PROPERTY BRUSSELS PROPERTY JACQUES CUISINIER JULES WABBES

SHARE THIS STORY

f Facebook

t Twitter

p Pinterest

0 Comments

RELATED STORIES

PROPERTY | 12.01.19

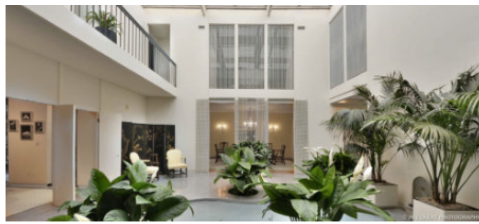

Our top properties of the week

NEWS, PROPERTY | 11.01.19

Ceramicist's converted dye mill is for sale in Rhode Island

PROPERTY | 10.01.19

Architect's perfectly preserved 1965 home hits the market near Chicago

NEWS, PROPERTY | 07.01.19

Renovation challenge: a Bishop's sprawling palace in the south of France

NEWSLETTER

WANT NEWS DELIVERED TO YOUR INBOX?

SIGN UP

